

DRINKSTONE EDUCATIONAL CHARITY

Funding for Educational Costs

When Drinkstone School closed (July 1986) and was sold, the money from the sale was used to set up Drinkstone Educational Charity. The interest from this fund is used to support Drinkstone residents with educational activities in the widest sense.

The charity is run by a small committee of local residents and meets 3 times a year to consider applications and make awards.

Could you or your family benefit?

Are you (or a family member) starting or already engaged in an educational activity? You may be able to apply for support — all ages welcome and there is no means testing.

Examples of what we've supported before

- ✓ College & university books and equipment
- ✓ School trips & World Challenge trips
- ✓ Sports lessons
- ✓ Vocational training, courses and equipment for new careers
- ✓ Local clubs and classes in Drinkstone

How to apply

You can find an application form on the village website:

www.drinkstonevillage.co.uk

Or simply email the Secretary: DrinkstoneEdCharity@gmail.com

Please include a short paragraph with:

- Your name and Drinkstone address
- The activity (what it is, where and when it will take place)
- The likely costs
